1 Intimate celebrations and Micro-Weddings:

Simple and elegant weddings with a touch of fantasy are one of the most popular trends. These weddings are held in fresh and tranquil places with a small guest list.

2 Unique and experiential weddings:

Designs that connect and immerse guests in a personal atmosphere and allowing them to experience sensations and emotions, are in high demand. This is made possible through attention to detail, entertainment, and wedding personalization.

3 Floral art in wedding celebrations:

Flowers are a trend that will never go out of style, which is why they continue playing a significant role in weddings. The latest trend is to use exotic flowers in decorations and arrangements.

4 Bright colors take center stage:

The bright and vibrant color palettes that inspire joy is trending in weddings. These provide unique and personalized designs that convey the couple's personality and identity.

5 Memories through documentary-style photos and videos

This trend arises from couples' desire to have memories that reflect their love in a more natural, sincere, and non-posing way. For this purpose, professional photographers use a photojournalistic style to show their most personal stories.

Enchanted Garden Romance

This wonderful option offers a unique concept that love and romance are celebrated in an enchanted garden, reflecting a perfect harmony between nature and decor. In this garden, the green plants blends with pure colors like white. Wood is also used as a material to create a garden-style effect. It is a fantastic choice if you want a celebration surrounded by nature.

You are my Sunshine

Just as the sun shines brightly and it is the main element of our days, in this romantic event, yellow is the primary color of the decor. If you are drawn to the concept of an intense love as the sun, you can undoubtedly express it with this decor, complemented by a color palette that features yellow, green and white which reflects pure love.

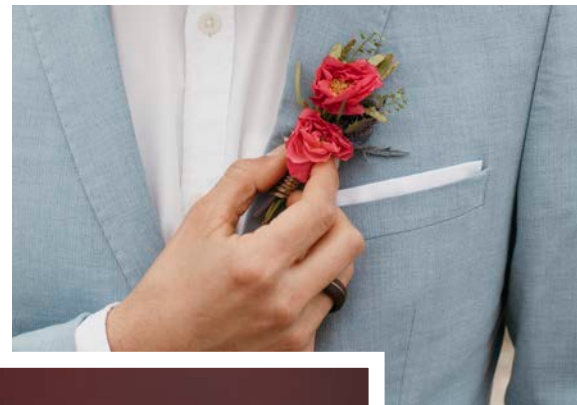

Sea Soul & Love

Imagine standing before the vast ocean, gazing at its endless shades and experiencing peace, well-being, and happiness. This is how you will feel during this celebration, designed with ocean views and featuring details characterized by delicate blue tones. White tablecloths, napkins, and candleholders contrast beautifully with the green nature. These elements reflect the love that the vast ocean conveys.

Blush Romance

Do you remember the first time you saw the love of your life? You might have blushed, and it may have been love at first sight. With this dreamy design, you can capture the emotion of that moment when you saw him/her for the first time. The pink flowers express the delicacy of that blush and the white reflects the pure feeling that blossoms in a relationship.

Rose of my heart

If you dream of expressing your love in the most literal sense, this design is perfect for you. Imagine a blank canvas that allows you to reflect your love in a single color—undoubtedly, that will be red. Its intense and vibrant hue, perfectly embodies love, making it the star of every detail of the event. White adds a touch of elegance and glamour.

Night & Day Eternal Love

Elegance, originality, and personality are the words that perfectly describe this wonderful design. If you dream of a celebration filled with glamour and style, this decor will make your dream come true. Celebrate love in an elegant and unique place.

Diamond Star Romance

As its name suggests, this design is characterized by transforming your event into a unique and brilliant diamond where love is the main star. Experience the most special day with this wonderful design that highlights the white color through magical details reflected in the chairs, tables, and candles. The silver color can also be appreciated in the cutlery, glasses, and vases.

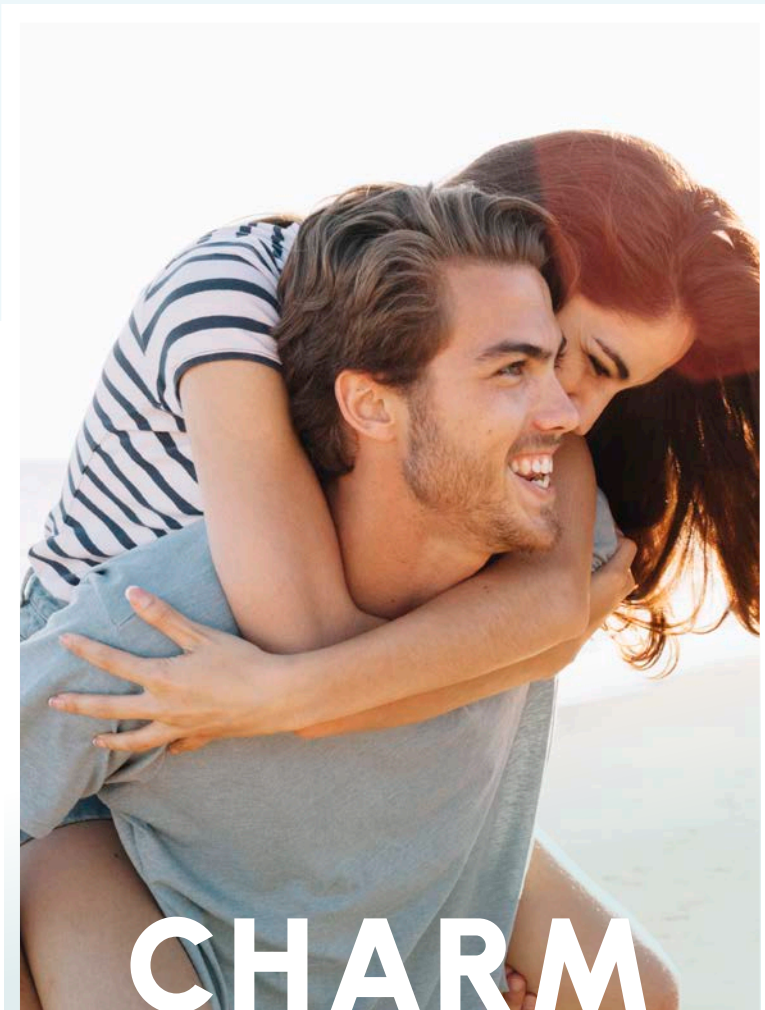

Champagne Gold Dreams

Imagine a celebration where elegance and purity intertwine in a perfect dance of gold and white. Imagine tall and elegant candle holders with white roses. Golden details that shine with the candles' light. Experience a dreamlike celebration.

DESTINATION WEDDINGS

Have you imagined what your ideal wedding destination would be? If you are planning to get married in a spectacular Caribbean location with ocean views and you want to have an unforgettable experience on beautiful beaches with tropical weather and vibrant culture, you should consider the following important aspects to organize your wedding:

1. Documentation and legal requirements:

The essential documents you need to bring for your destination wedding include valid passports, copies of birth certificates, and any other documents required by the Civil Registry.

2. Translations and legalizations:

Some places may require documents translated into Spanish that must be legalized.

3. Length of stay:

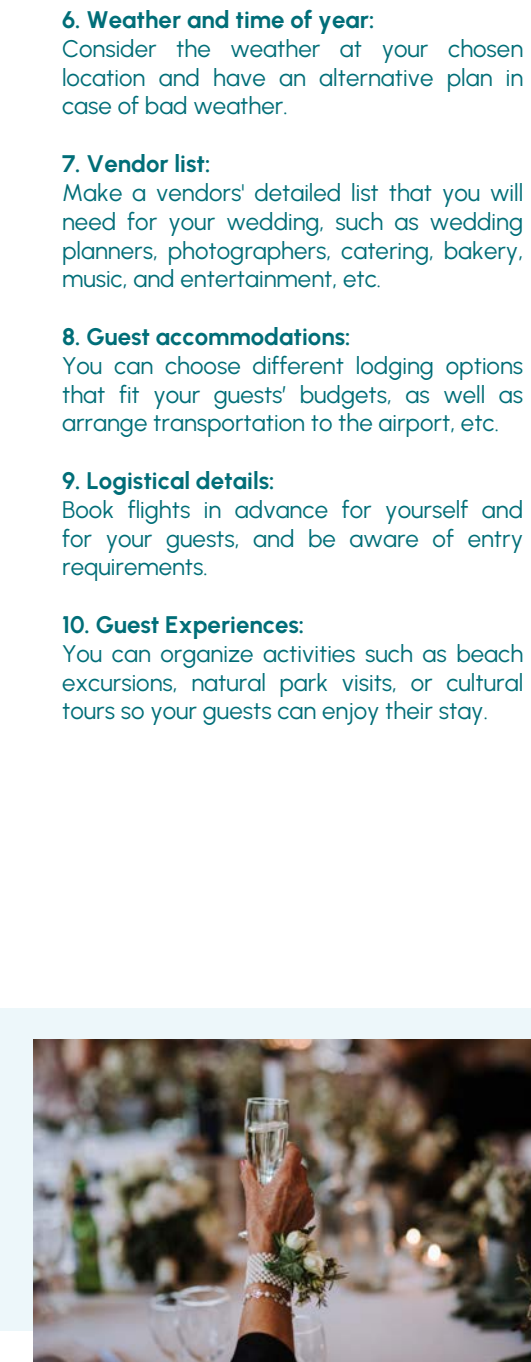

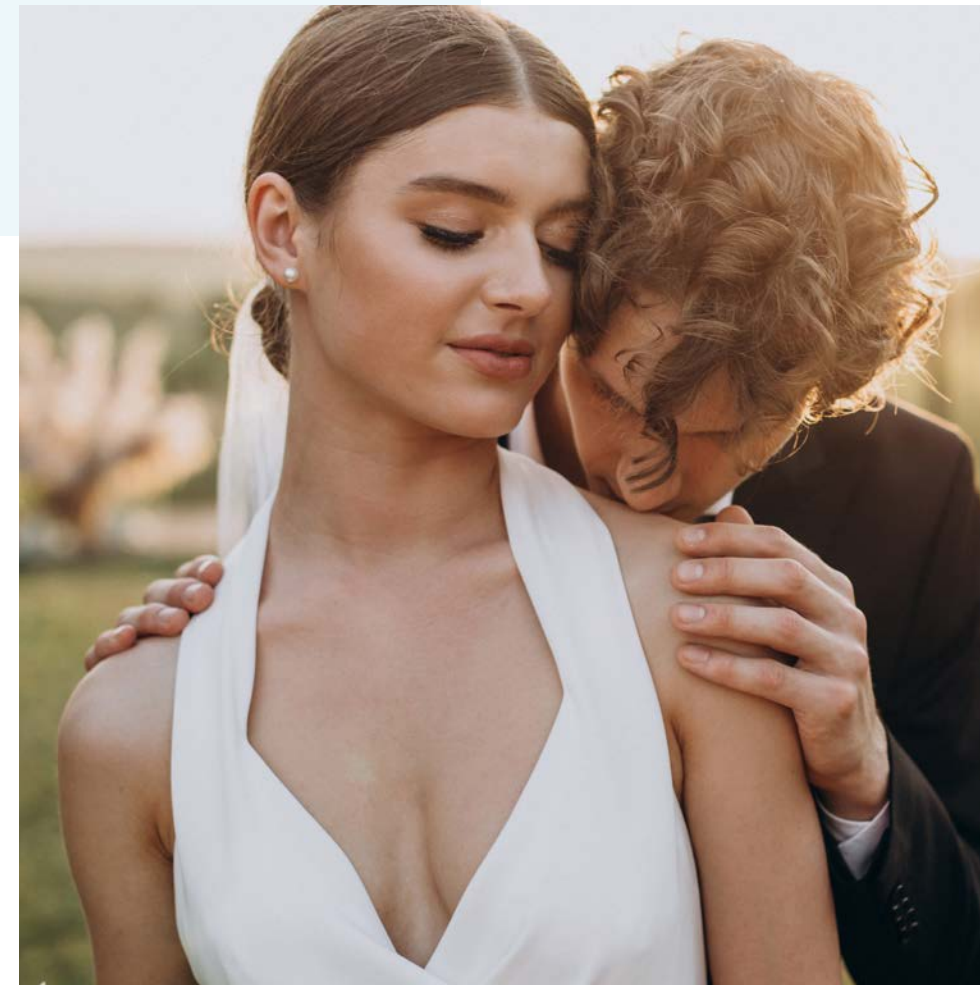

Depending on the location, you may need to arrive a few days before the wedding to complete legal procedures. Make sure you know this requirement.

4. Venue selection:

Find out about the places where you can hold your wedding. Many resorts offer all-inclusive wedding packages that simplify planning.

5. Resort policies:

Make sure you understand all the rules you will need to follow for your wedding, such as whether children are allowed and other important details.

6. Weather and time of year:

Consider the weather at your chosen location and have an alternative plan in case of bad weather.

7. Vendor list:

Make a vendors' detailed list that you will need for your wedding, such as wedding planners, photographers, catering, bakery, music, and entertainment, etc.

8. Guest accommodations:

You can choose different lodging options that fit your guests' budgets, as well as arrange transportation to the airport, etc.

9. Logistical details:

Book flights in advance for yourself and for your guests, and be aware of entry requirements.

10. Guest Experiences:

You can organize activities such as beach excursions, natural park visits, or cultural tours so your guests can enjoy their stay.
